GENL & REV.

Sir,

I have the honor to intimate that on a communication received from the Chief Electrical Engineer asking me to let him know the probable number of telephones required by my department when the new telephone exchange is fitted up, I have replied to him that I may require a phone on my table and that I would apply for necessary sanction of Covernment for this and would communicate the same to him.

As there is no telephone at present for the use of this office and one is found to be very necessary and conducive to quicker despatch of work in this office, I request you to kindly obtain necessary sanction of

Subd with a draft order for approval
Ker 25/9. The installation of a telephone in the Comptroller's office is a necessity as there will be several calls from the Banks e.g. the Mysore Bank, the Imperial Bank etc which will facilitate the Comptroller's work.

For want of a phone, the Comptroller on previous occasions had to go to the Seetl booth in the Hall.

For approval
Subd to Dewan.
